

You're Invited

Maryland Department of the Environment

Secretary Serena McIlwain's South Baltimore Listening Session

Secretary McIlwain is a national leader on environmental justice and was appointed by Governor Moore to lead the Maryland Department of the Environment to provide clean land, air, and water to all Maryland residents. She wants to hear from you, to learn about your lived experiences and community concerns.

Meeting Information:

Friday, April 21st

6:30pm to 8:00pm

Curtis Bay Recreation Center

1630 Filbert St, Baltimore, MD 21226

Contact Information:

Caitlin Eversmier

Special Assistant to the Secretary on EJ

ej.mde@maryland.gov

“I am ready to partner with you to take action to address Maryland’s environmental injustices.” - Secretary McIlwain